

FROM THE QUARTERDECK

MAY 2025

COMMODORE'S ADDRESS

By the time you read this, Opening Day will be behind us and we will have embarked on our 86th season. Our volunteers have put together an amazing menu of activities - social, sailing, and learning. I hope you are taking part in the way that suits you best, and giving your time as a volunteer to help ensure we grow our sailing community for all to enjoy.

I was very lucky to be able to visit Scotland just recently. We were blessed with weather that is not typical - it was sunny and 50-60 degrees every day for 2 weeks! The locals were shocked and amazed that Spring had arrived with such vigor. You may wonder what this has to do with sailing. Being a land with a large coastline and many internal bodies of water, Scotland is a land of boaters and sailors. I try to always have a spare burgee in my suitcase, just in case we run into someone with whom I can share the story of FBYC. And if you have ever chatted with my husband, you know Paul has never met a stranger.

We stopped to visit Dundee and went on up the coast to Broughty Ferry, a lovely seaside town. We stayed in a local brew house with a few rooms to rent upstairs. While exploring the town, we walked out on the dock. I commented on the sign on the building for the open water swimming club on the Tay River, YeAABA (Ye Amphibious Ancients Bathing Association). Even though the weather was "good" based on normal conditions, it was probably blowing 25 and 45 degrees. Who would go swimming in that weather? Apparently a lot of the locals!

We ran into a gentleman who was a volunteer working on the safety boats for the swimming club, and he and Paul struck up a conversation. This gentleman had the most Scottish of Scottish names - Dougal Ferguson McIntosh.

Dougal is a very spry 83 year old, who is a very busy guy. He's a jazz musician who plays the drums, and has a gig coming up soon. He also happened to be a sailor. Not just any sailor, but the Commodore of Tay Corinthian Boating Club located right up the road. Well, needless to say I trotted right back to the car and brought Dougal the FBYC burgee. We had a great chat and I believe he would have taken us to his house for dinner if we hadn't had to get on to the next stop.

The message here is that the sailing community is large, friendly, and built on similar ideas no matter where you are in the world. Dougal and his friends in Scotland were running a volunteer organization with folks who may have differences, but more importantly, they have a common interest and love of sailing that brings them together. Given the current challenges in the world, let's focus on the things that bring us together, like sailing, and make the most of this season and every day. Happy sailing!

~ Mary Almany, Commodore

SPECIAL NOTICES | SOCIAL

ARTS ON FISHING BAY RETURNS FOR THE FOURTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Arts on Fishing Bay will offer a seasonal showing of nautically related art by members and their families. The scope, variety, and quality of our members' artistic pursuits, always inspired by their love of the Chesapeake and the sport of sailing, is amazing, as evidenced by the variety of works and materials from our past contributors, Stella Jones, Lolly Heyward, Lew Thatcher, Carole Vaughn, Izumi Miller, and Lyons Burke. We have seen watercolor and oil paintings, collages, intricate pencil renditions, and picture quilts. This year we will venture into marine photography with a showing of spectacular on-the-water scenes, presented by Paul Almany, and into the rarified world of hanging three dimensional forms using homemade papers, dyes, found materials and images, and a vivid imagination, presented by Caroline Garrett Hardy, aunt of our very own Caroline Garrett Patrick and Parker Garrett, and sister of past Commodore Waddy Garrett. Paul's photo exhibit can be seen on the second floor of the Main Clubhouse from Opening Day until the end of July, and Caroline's works, with a fascinating description of how they are created, from August until Closing Day. Examples of each exhibit can be seen here. Don't miss these wonderful showings!

APPROVED FOR MEMBERSHIP*Kelly Burton – Richmond, VA

- Kelly loves it at FBYC! She feels like she has found a little slice of paradise, and wants to contribute more to the community, and have access to the One Design boats to get better at skippering. FBYC member Ron Jenkins met Kelly at the Women's sailing clinic and noticed she clearly has the sailing bug. Since then, she has sailed with a wide variety of FBYC skippers—offshore and one design. All report that she is a joy to have on board. Kelly is a quick learner and her technical background shows. This year, Kelly has already volunteered to assist with Crew Training. She was part of the 2024 Crew Training class and will share her experiences at FBYC with this year's class, highlighting all the great things she has experienced at the Club. Her enthusiasm for the sport is truly contagious, and she will help inspire and motivate the Crew Training class of 2025. Kelly has offered to assist with outreach to younger members, spreading the word about FBYC in general, and our club boat program in particular. Kelly will make a great member, bringing a lot to the FBYC community. Sponsors: Ronald Jenkins & Joseph Roos

Thomas & Patricia*Mayhew - Irvington, VA -

The Mayhews would like to express their enthusiastic interest in joining FBYC.

Over the past few years, their children have had the incredible opportunity to participate in the junior sailing program, and it has been truly a joyous experience for their entire family. Fellow members Ainslie Hodges & Costa Plakas met the Mayhew family in 2021, when the Mayhews' daughter joined theirs at school in Irvington. Since then, they have come to know the family as keen boaters, joining them numerous times on a variety of boating "adventures" on the Northern Neck, and more importantly as proponents of their daughters' passions, which include sailing! FBYC Members Tim & Diane Dalsaso have gotten to know the Mayhew family at FBYC while the Mayhews' daughters sailed in Junior Week and other sailing programs with their sons. They are truly looking forward to reconnecting with them again this summer. The children will be sailing Optis together and are excited to further their sailing knowledge and skills with their friends. The Mayhews will be a great addition to FBYC. Sponsors: Ainslie Hodges & Costa Plakas and Tim & Diane Dalsaso

RACING

TODD BLEKICKI

On the Stingray Point Regatta management front, Joe Nelson is in need of volunteers to manage the following functional areas: Social, Marketing, and Administrative. I invite anyone to check in with Joe Nelson at jwn2ster@gmail.com WE are in NEED of more volunteers, so please step up and show off your management skills!

SUBJECT – OFFSHORE DIVISION HIGHPOINT TRACKING

Offshore events are now in progress, so I will provide an overview of our business procedures for scoring highpoints. Event scorers will score daily events via a low point system and Regatta Network will score via a highpoint system. A spreadsheet will be posted via a link on each event website and all skippers can track their seasonal standings on this link. The link will be updated following each Offshore event.

Once the Spring Series is completed, we will operate our events in a series mode within Regatta Network. This means that the Distance Series and Fall Series will be managed in series within Regatta Network. To date, we have managed events in Regatta Network as singular events. This is a bit of minutia to most folks, this change may potentially save us fees with Regatta Network. The only change for skippers is that once one registers for Distance 1 - Cut Channel, Regatta Network will automatically register that skipper for the remaining 3 Distance Events. The same will hold true for the Fall Series Events. Thus, Regatta Network will be managed in a series mode versus an event mode. We will enjoy a cost savings using the series mode. The tracking system that will be updated in our linked spreadsheet will parallel this process and be updated on each FBYC event page. Please know that my electronic office door is always open to field your questions.

Staffing management for Offshore Social Chairs and PROs remains a dynamic process. We are still in need of Social Chairs and PROs. Please reach Brad Burch and Jennifer Schooley to volunteer as Social Chair. Brad Miller is our point of contact for PRO staffing items. Our current staffing plans are illustrated here:

FAMILY & JUNIOR ALUMNI REGATTA / SOCIAL ONE-DESIGN SATURDAY, MAY 24, 2025

This family-friendly event encourages and promotes families who sail together. The skipper/crew combination must be family members. They can be of any age and relationship, such as, but not limited to, father-son, mother-daughter, wife-husband, grandparent-grandchild, siblings, cousins, etc. Juniors are welcome and encouraged. FBYC Junior Program alumni are welcome to single hand or race together regardless of relationship. Racing will feature multiple races of small course buoy racing on the Piankatank River near Fishing Bay.

CLASSES - Flying Scot, Melges 15, and any class of any three like one design boats, or 3 unlike boats racing in a Portsmouth fleet are also invited to race. When fewer than three boats participate, they may start with a pre-designated One Design fleet but will not be scored.

REGISTRATION - All participants must register prior to the start of the first race. Event registration, information and notices can be found at the event website on Regatta Network.

PROGRAM

1000 - Welcome and Late Registration
(via Regatta Network only)

1030 - Skippers Meeting

1200 - First warning signal

Awards, beverages and snacks to follow racing

Please visit Regatta Network for NOR, SI, Registration and further announcements.

So, get signed up on Regatta Network. Don't miss a race. Let's go sailing!

See you on the water - Holly Sears, One Design Commander

CRUISING UPDATE FOR MAY

The Cruising Opening Dinner took place on Friday April 25th, the FBYC Opening Day Race, the Blessing of the Fleet, dinner and party took place on Saturday the 25th. Our season is officially underway!

The first cruise of the season is upon us! On May 3rd and 4th, Doug & Alison Selden will lead a cruise to Carter's Creek. They plan a stay at the Seabright Marina (just past RRYC as you enter the creek) and dinner at a local restaurant. Doug & Alison will drop a car in Irvington before the cruise to assist with transportation to dinner if necessary. Boat not ready yet? Don't let that stop you - come by car and enjoy the evening.

Please check out Brian & Anne Holdaway's plans for a Father's Day cruise to Yankee Point Marina on the Corrotoman River over June 14th and 15th. Anchor out if the weather is comfortable or reserve a slip at the marina & plug in. Dinner will be at the marina's restaurant, The Black Duck. Yankee Point will host a band that evening in an event that supports the Northern Neck Habitat for Humanity.

Steve and Margaret Montgomery are developing plans for a 4th of July cruise. Options were discussed at the Opening Dinner and plans are likely to be finalized soon. Check the website for details.

Wee Dram will take place on August 22nd through 24th. Please pay close attention to details on the website and don't delay!

On September 21st and 22nd, Ron and Ruthanna Jenkins are organizing a visit to Ditchley Cider Works on Dividing Creek. They have plans for some enticing activities to add some additional interest to what is already a fun event.

Please mark your calendar and check the FBYC website for details and to register. These events will be fun, and there are many additional opportunities for us to get together out on the water this season. Other cruises are on the drawing board now, but if you have a suggestion, question, or if you are interested in leading a cruise, please contact Stuart Gregory.

MELGES 15 CLINIC AT FBYC
MAY 26-31

Fishing Bay Yacht Club is excited to host a Melges 15 Clinic from May 26 to 31, led by international coaches Tomas Pellejero and Rachid Dalibalta.

This multi-day clinic is a fantastic opportunity for sailors to sharpen their skills and gain valuable insights into racing the Melges 15. Topics throughout the week will include rigging, race strategy, starting techniques, and downwind performance.

Each day will conclude with on-shore debriefs and casual socials, offering the perfect setting to learn, connect, and relax with fellow sailors.

Open to all experience levels, ages 15 and up. Whether you're new to the class or looking to refine your performance, this clinic has something for everyone. Please note: Registration must be completed for each individual day of the clinic when signing up through CampDoc.

ADULT SAILING*READY, SET, SAIL!*Kick Off Summer at the 5th Annual Small Boat Festival – May 31

Calling all One Design and small boat sailors—it's time to launch into summer fun! Join us for a full day of sailing, light racing, and a laid-back party to wrap it all up. Whether you're a seasoned sailor or just getting started, this event is all about getting out on the water, having fun, and connecting with others who love boats as much as you do. We'll even have in-boat coaching throughout the day—perfect for beginners or anyone looking to sharpen their sailing skills.

No Boat? No Problem!

Discover the joy of small boat sailing through the Club Boat Program. Sign up, schedule a checkout sail, and enjoy unlimited access to our fleet of Flying Scots all season long—for just $100! That's less than the cost of a single day's rental elsewhere.

New to Sailing? Looking for Some Pointers? We've Got You Covered!

If you're new to sailing or looking to build your skills, the FBYC Adult Sailing Program offers tailored in-boat coaching—available at our summer clinics or through private lessons. We'll work with you to set goals and make sure you're learning at your pace.

Even More to Look Forward To in 2025:

Following in the wake of the 5th Annual Small Boat festival, Adult Sailing has a great lineup this summer:

- June 28 – Adult Clinic with optional Sea Breeze Racing. Learn and compete in a fun, low-pressure setting.
- July 12–13 – Women's Clinic. For beginners and aspiring racers alike—this weekend is all about skill-building and fun.
- August 9 – Adult Sailing Clinic. A great day on the water to improve your technique and enjoy the breeze.

See event pages at www.fbyc.net for details.

Bring Your Crew!

Sailing is always better when it's shared. So bring a friend, invite your family, or introduce someone new to the water. There's something for everyone in the FBYC Adult Sailing Program.

Don't miss out—sign up now and kick off summer with sails up and smiles all around!

JUNIORS

SUMMER SAILING SEASON BUZZING WITH EXCITEMENT!

Anticipation is high as the summer sailing season approaches, marked by enthusiastic sign-ups for Junior Week, the development team, the race team, and our popular summer sailing schools over the past few months. Junior Week, scheduled for June 16th - 20th, has seen an impressive 158 young sailors register, bringing many classes close to full capacity. This strong interest nearly matches last year's record enrollment of 161, our largest Junior Week ever. This flagship program relies heavily on the generous support of numerous volunteers, both onshore and on the water. If you'd like to contribute to this exciting event, please reach out via email at: Juniors@FBYC.net

Adding to the early season excitement is the Junior Regatta on the weekend of June 21st and 22nd. This fantastic event offers many junior sailors their first taste of high-level competition. Furthermore, the Green Fleet provides an excellent opportunity for sailors who have progressed through intermediate classes during Junior Week to gain experience and prepare for the development team for the remainder of the summer. Once again, volunteer support is crucial for the success of this event, and any assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Preparations are also well underway for our summer race and development teams. The 420-race team has already held a planning meeting, outlining their plans to compete at a series of national level regattas this summer. Additionally, returning members of the Opti Race and Laser/ILCA Race teams aiming to compete in the CBYRA circuit in the region are eager for the season to begin. We are also thrilled to welcome back JT Mason, coming off a year of sailing at Rhode Island University, who will once again be leading our Opti Development Team. We eagerly anticipate the progress and growth that will emerge from a summer spent on the water.

Finally, our Opti Kids program continues to attract significant interest as a key introduction to our sailing program, alongside our other thriving summer sailing school sessions.

All signs point towards a fantastic summer on the water! Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or would like to get involved.
